MUNICIPAL DISTRICT OF BRIGHT, No. 69, IN SOUND FINANCIAL POSITION

The annual meeting of the Municipal District of Bright No. 69 was held on Saturday, Feb. 20 in the municipal office, Macleod. The municipal council met in the forenoon at 10 o'clock to wind up the business of the year, this being the last meeting. The returning officer, P. J. Doyle presided, and all members were present.

The meeting of ratepayers was held in the afternoon. The financial statement for the year 1925 was presented by the secretary-treasurer H. W. Bright. The statement having been printed and circulated among the ratepayers, was fully discussed at the meeting and was considered very satisfactory. The balance shown in the bank at the beginning of the year was $13,632.64 and at the close of the year on December 31 this balance had increased to $18,019.52, which clearly demonstrated that the year 1925 had been a good year for the Municipality of Bright, that money was more plentiful among the farmers, and as recent taxes and arrears were paid in a way they have not been for many years. The balance of assets over liabilities was $26,860.97 which shows the healthy financial position of the municipality.

For road improvements and repairs the sum of $6,535.55 was paid out during the year, and the roads in the district by this expenditure were kept in first class shape. Great credit is due the councillors for the able manner in which they looked after this department of their work. The sum of $819.68 was spent in the destruction of pests, weeds, gophers and grasshoppers.

A resolution was presented to the meeting, asking the council to make a change in the boundaries of Divisions 1, 2, 3, and 4, the recommendation being to make the divisions run north to south instead of from east to west as at present. Another resolution was presented recommending that all machinery implements and tools belonging to the municipality be branded.

According to rule there are elections in Divisions 1, 2, and 3, Messrs. T. E. Murphy, J. Maloney and J. H. Evans, being the retiring members. Mr. Maloney in Division 2 is not seeking re-election, but Mr. Murphy in Division 1, and Mr. Evans in Division 3 were re-elected by acclamation. To fill the vacancy in Division 2 there were three nominations, Messrs. E. L. Bodgener, Adam Burdick and F. C. Wintermute. It is expected the contest will be very keen, as all three candidates are well known and highly respected farmers in the division. The election will take place on Saturday, Feb. 27th the returning officer being Mr. P. J. Doyle, and the D. R. O. is Alex. Gillan.

MACLEOD SCOTCHMEN LAUNCH SOCIETY

The Scotchmen of Macleod and district met Saturday evening for the purpose of considering the advisability of organizing a Scotch Society for Macleod. Hugh Mackintosh, who was chiefly responsible for calling the meeting, occupied the chair.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one, and after due consideration it was resolved to form a society to be known as "The St. Andrew's Society of Macleod and District."

The objects of the society shall be: the binding together of persons of Scotch birth and descent; the encouragement of Scotch native customs; Scottish games and dances; the cultivation of a taste for Scottish music, history, and literature. The following officers were elected: President, Hugh Mackintosh; vice-president, John R. Mackay; committee, John McLennan, John Baird, John Kirkland, John Pringle, Robert Horsburg, Walter Mackie; piper, Hugh McMillan; bard, Robert B. Wilson; chaplain, Rev. A. W. R. Whiteman, B.A., B.D.; secretary-treasurer, R. J. E. Gardiner.

From the list of names handed in at the meeting, it is expected that the membership of the society will be around the hundred mark. It was practically decided that the society will put on a big day of old time Caledonian games and sports on July 1, 1926.

Hughie McMillan was present and gave the lads a rousing tune on the pipes.

Mr. Whiteman will have charge of the services.

Miss Pelton, Field Secretary for the Women's Missionary Society who is touring the west, will address the ladies and all who wish to attend on Friday, the 26th at 4 p.m. in St. Andrew's Church. This meeting is open to the public. Miss Pelton is one of the ablest missionary workers in the church.

RICHARD TALMADGE-EMPRESS

Richard Talmadge never has to study stunts. The daring deeds which he makes his screen followers gasp, come almost as second nature to him; and he has a picture packed with new death-defying tricks in his latest offering, "Youth and Adventure," which comes to the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday. But in addition to being

The following news story from The Lethbridge Herald will be of considerable local interest in view of the activity of Macleod and District Board of Trade in opposing Lethbridge in their endeavor to have the Macleod-Cardston main highway changed from the direct route Macleod to Cardston through the Blood Indian Reserve so that the road would run from Macleod to Lethbridge and thence to Cardston. The Macleod Board of Trade's contention was for direct main highways, and in this they have been substantiated by Hon. Alex. Ross, minister of public works, as follows:—

Edmonton, Feb. 19.—Strong representations by a deputation of Lethbridge, Cardston and Magrath citizens failed to move Hon. Alex. Ross, minister of public works, this morning to recede from the position that the road between Lethbridge and Cardston shall not be a main trunk highway.

After listening carefully to the arguments, Mr. Ross said it was impossible at the present time for the government to consider making this link a trunk road. This was particularly so when there were already three main trunk roads entering the province from the south and would soon be another from Medicine Hat south to Havre, Montana.

The minister, however, did promise Geo. L. Stringam, M.L.A. Cardston, who accompanied the deputation, that consideration would be given to the subject of making special grants to keep the road up as a market road.

The arguments in favor of creating the Lethbridge-Cardston link as a main trunk road were voiced by Commissioner M. Freeman, Lethbridge; Mayor Mark Spencer, Cardston; Pres. A. B. Hogg of the Lethbridge Board of Trade and J. H. Bridge of Magrath.

A Difference of Opinion One point raised was that the Lethbridge-Cardston road had originally been a main trunk highway before the trunk link from Cardston to Macleod was created. Mr. Ross, however, produced old government maps to show this had never been the case, that the idea that the Lethbridge-Cardston road was once a main trunk highway was a popular misapprehension.

Lethbridge Argument President Hogg of the Lethbridge Board of Trade the first speaker emphasized the point that the deputation was in no way arguing against the continuation of the Cardston-Macleod link as a main trunk highway. They were presenting a petition with 3,000 signatures of people residing in the towns and rural areas served by the road between Cardston and Lethbridge, who were anxious to have a trunk line also. They recognized that the trunk road Cardston via Macleod to Calgary was the most direct for through tourist travel, but the Cardston-Lethbridge link would serve two purposes—bring in tourists to see the agricultural and industrial development in the garden spot of the south, and help advertise the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation districts, which the road would skirt or traverse.

Cardston Argument Mayor Spencer of Cardston took a similar line. As Cardston was on the receiving end at the south for

THE EMPRESS THEATRE -- CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

BEAUTY-COMEDY SPECIAL HEADS EMPRESS PROGRAM—"THE AMERICAN VENUS" HAILED AS MOST SUMPTUOUS SCREEN PRODUCTION OF THE YEAR

One of the most widely publicized and eagerly awaited screen productions will be unfolded to local moviegoers next Monday when Paramount's magnificent beauty-comedy spectacle, "The American Venus," begins a two days' run at the Empress Theatre.

This is the photoplay that has the recent Atlantic City bathing beauty pageant for its colorful background and which includes in the personnel of its cast Fay Lanphier, who was crowned "Miss America," several of the leading national beauty contestants, twenty of the loveliest maidens in America, to say nothing of a brilliant group of film and stage favorites, headed by Esther Ralston Lawrence Gray and Ford Sterling.

This wondrous array of youth beauty and talent is further enhanced by the most lavish and luxurious costumes, sets and scenic effects ever seen on the screen. The high point of spectacular display in the picture is the sumptuous fashion show and the artistic tableaux which were filmed in color.

The theme of the story is a beauty contest staged by a group of artists who are desirous of finding modern "The American Venus." The personalities who become involved in the tangled skein of the plot are a small town girl, who enters the contest to help boost her father's complexion creams, her press agent-lover, and a rival beauty cream manufacturer and his son who attempt to defeat her ambitions for selfish business reasons.

The picture sets a swift pace from the moment it begins to unfold and maintains the interest and suspense right up to the final stirring finish. There is comedy in abundance, heart appeal galore and thrills aplenty. In fact, "The American Venus," a race and dizzy aerial stunts are guaranteed to give the most blasé film fan a few extra palpitations of the heart.

Frank Tuttle has deftly directed the production which is based on Townsend Martin's original story.

A DAMP ROMANCE!

"The American Venus," at the Empress Monday and Tuesday which Frank Tuttle directed with Esther Ralston, Ford Sterling, Lawrence Gray and "Miss America" (Fay Lanphier), gave Gray a chance to do his love-making in the swirl of a rushing river. He and Esther Ralston journeyed to Ocala, Fla., for the filming of part of this picture. On the banks of Silver Springs Run in the heart of the Florida jungle they enacted scenes in which Gray met Miss Ralston through physical training scenes prior to her entry in a bathing beauty contest.

After the gymnastics Miss Ralston made a fancy dive into the river, and Gray in his enthusiasm followed her, natty white sports clothes and all. But in spite of the handicap of robes and other encumbrances, he outdistanced the swimmer, brought her to the rim of a pool and exacted his reward in a kiss. It's all part of the story which Townsend Martin wrote especially for the screen, involving Miss Centerville's (Esther Ralston) efforts to win the title of "Miss America" at the Atlantic City bathing beauty show.

an athlete who leaps from aeroplanes, roller-coasters and automobiles, as he does in this production, Talmadge is a stickler for getting things right. Therefore he spent several days in the office of one of the largest Los Angeles newspapers getting posted on his part of a young newspaper editor which he plays in the current attraction Margaret Landis takes the feminine role opposite the active star, while Katherine Lewis, "Long Hair," and Pete Gordon and Fred Kelsey are in support.

Anticipating a large class of candidates and a large crowd of visiting Elks from other Lodges, the Elk Committee has engaged the Hudson's Bay Hall for the big night. The windows will be covered and Grand Organist Tony McKinley says that he is arranging for a whole Mounted Police Force of Macleod to guard the building against possible invasion by the wives, mothers, daughters, sisters or sweethearts of Candidates who may be curiously inclined.

The Organizer reports that he is meeting with marked success and that the work of calling on the large number of citizens who are desired in the Order has really only begun.

He says that the Elk idea is taking a great hold in Canada and that in all towns where the Order has been instituted people are unenthusiastic in their praise of the community spirit which is developed not only in town, but between town and country as well. The Order injects new life and pep into the social, fraternal, sporting and every-day life everywhere. At least twice a year it shows a particular interest in all the children of the community. Every true Elk is always interested in children, their work and their play.

incoming tourists it made no difference to the town which way they went north but the population between Lethbridge and Cardston was so dense and the road so much travelled that it was vital for the highway to be maintained as a trunk highway.

Magrath Argument Mr. Bridge, prominent in Magrath U. F. A. circles said the road would be the greatest possible asset in advertising the fact that that portion of the province was second to none in agricultural production. The town of Magrath was prepared to go "fifty-fifty" with the government on graveling the road through Magrath and a mile beyond while many of the farmers were so anxious to get the road made a main highway that they had volunteered to gravel five or six miles of it themselves.

Mr. Stringam said that, while he had at first refused to sign the petition for the road because he thought it meant effort to take away the main trunk road between Cardston and Macleod, since he had learned this was not the purpose, he was now heartily in support of what the deputation and petitioners were asking. While he realized the government had to hold down expenditures, still if expenditures were justified anywhere, it was on road construction.

Commissioner Freeman presented a powerful argument in some brief statistics. Without in the least desiring, he said, to attack the necessity of the Macleod-Cardston link as the most direct, nevertheless he had to point out that living on an area within six miles on either side of the Lethbridge-Cardston road there were 16,305 settlers on an average of 320 persons per mile. On the other hand in a similar area within six miles on either side of the Macleod-Cardston line, and including both Macleod and Cardston, there were 4,432 persons or 95 persons per mile. The figures spoke for themselves as the vital reason why the road should be maintained as a trunk line besides the fact that tourists should be shown the best goods the province had.

Ross' Answer In reply to all these arguments, Mr. Ross first produced the map and documents to prove that the Cardston-Lethbridge road had never been a main trunk highway giving facilities for tourist travel north from Glacier Park to the northern part of the province. He said he was personally responsible for creating the Cardston-Macleod link to complete a direct north and south trunk highway giving facilities for tourist travel north from Glacier Park to the northern part of the province. Prior to that time, the road north from Cardston to Lethbridge had been created a main trunk highway. To-day, therefore, there were three main trunk highways entering Alberta from the south—the road through the Crow which Mr. Ross believed ultimately would be one of the greatest tourist scenic highways in the west, the proposed main trunk highway via Cardston and Macleod, and the highway from Coutts to Lethbridge. These three were fairly close together and it was now necessary to create another one south from Medicine Hat leading to Havre, Mont. This would give four main roads from the south and Mr. Ross called the attention of the deputation to the dearth of main highways in the northern part of the province.

He was prepared to admit that the Cardston-Lethbridge link would be a great convenience to the people living there but to construct the 55 miles of it as a main highway would cost in the neighborhood of $275,000 and the Dominion road grant would be exhausted by the program already planned. At some time in the future, when the highways plan was being revised, he would be prepared to give the petition consideration but, added the minister, "if $40,000 were available now, it would all easily be spent and well spent, on constructing main highways asked all over the province." The road was a market road now and would be given all the attention possible in that category.

POLITICAL EAST WIND

The construction placed by Secretary Hoover on the rubber monopoly, and the implication which he evidently desires the American people to believe, is that the British Government deliberately planned a sharp scheme whereby it should be able to extort an altogether unwarranted profit from the American consumer. All the discussions and speeches of Mr. Hoover and his associates on the subject have never failed to contain either a direct statement to this effect, or some veiled suggestion that it sometimes more readily swallowed by a hungry public than the irrefutable facts.

Mr. Hoover has gone even further than this. He has unctuously introduced into an ordinary occurrence in trade the specious apprehension that international amity is endangered by the continuance of the monopoly.

The press of the country is daily dishing up this sort of drivel, and in many cases are deliberately attempting to stir up a feeling of animosity and resentment against Britain. This kind of inflammatory propaganda makes the finest sort of political campaign stuff, but it is as untrue, as it is insincere.

Secretary Hoover would have the world believe that his one great object is to protect the American people from the rapacity of foreign combines. This is a sublimated buncombe. He might show himself a more worthy champion of the people's welfare if he turned his attention to the exactions of the tire manufacturers who are now, on the excuse of the high cost of rubber, charging the public $17 more for a tire to which the increased price of rubber accounts for only $2. The high-cost-of-rubber idea has been so skillfully exploited that the public believe that every fresh advance in the price goes into the pockets of the greedy British Government.

The profiteer, unlike the prophet is, apparently, not without honor in his own country.

If Mr. Hoover has any regard for his personal comfort, or that of his countrymen, he would do well to heed the reproof of Eliphaz to Job: "Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?"

ANOTHER ROYAL LEVY

Queen Marie of Rumania, who like her counterpart in the pack knows how to gather in the Jack has signed a contract to write scenarios for a Los Angeles motion picture company.

Columbus thought he had discovered America. Well, Queen Marie has rediscovered it. And she has discovered resources that make Pizarro, Cortez and all the early European gold-diggers look like pikers.

Up-to-date, Queen Marie has cashed in on the great American public, through three different sources.

She sells a series of beauty talks through Mr. Hearst's publications. She has sold a series of articles in American magazines on how it feels to be a queen. And she sells her royal name to advertise a line of toilet articles.

And the reason the American public permits itself to be bled by this royal go-getter of several hundred thousand a year is not because she can write. She can't. It is simply because she is a queen, and they, members of the world's greatest democracy, fall for it like a ton of bricks.

The American people had fondly hoped that they had thrown off the shackles of royalty, smashed all crowns and broken all sceptres in 1776.

But all that blood seems to have been shed in vain. Today they are contributing more for the beauty bank of Queen Marie than they refused to contribute to King George on the fateful tea tax.

ROYAL EUGENICS

King Victor Emmanuel of Italy says a cable despatch, issues the royal decree that no royal princes of Italy will in future be permitted to marry ladies of other than royal rank.

There is nothing snobbish nor foolish about it. It is simply a question of eugenics. King Victor Emmanuel believes that generations of breeding have brought out factors in royalty that enable them to rule with wisdom and distinction.

He may be wrong in his particulars. But in his principle he is absolutely correct. Most people will probably agree that most of the European royal families have developed unpleasant traits. But if King Victor wants these traits, he is taking the scientific way of getting them.

At any rate his decree will serve the purpose of attracting much needed attention to the science of eugenics.

At present, most people mate their sons and daughters with infinitely less care than they mate their thoroughbred cattle. They take more thought about the physical quality of their young pigs than they do about the mental and physical quality of their children and grandchildren.

And the result is that this haphazard breeding is multiplying inferior types and cutting the birth of superior types down to a minimum.

The world can recover from a famine in grain or meat. But it cannot recover from a famine in brains, health and moral stamina.

DIVISION OF FREIGHT CHARGES OVER $7 TON ACCEPTED—BROWNLEE

Edmonton, Feb. 23.—Joint action with the Dominion and Ontario governments in respect to payment of excess costs on the movement of 200,000 tons of coal to the eastern market has been decided upon by the Alberta government. The province will assume responsibility for a one-third share of the actual freight expense over $7 a ton.

Only Small Shortage

Premier Brownlee in announcing this decision said that the government will co-operate with the other governments along this line provided that there is a thorough distribution of the coal orders with the Alberta mines and also provided that the basis of the arrangement is strictly only the out-of-pocket expense of moving the coal. He is quite sure that a result of his past investigation into the freight rate situation, that on such a basis a satisfactory rate on full train lots is possible and therefore does not expect that the provincial treasury will be called upon to make up much if any, in the way of a shortage.

"Because we believe that," said the premier, "we are entering into the arrangement, and we also have been influenced by the fact that it is desirable to make some special effort to hold the Ontario market against the United States mines until such times as the railway commission completes its inquiry."

Not Permanent Plan
It is not to be understood as a definite decision to keep on paying one-third or any other proportion of the cost of moving coal eastward, said Mr. Brownlee. The action of the government in this instance is not a commitment, he pointed out, to any permanent policy of giving provincial assistance by way of bonus to the export of coal from Alberta.

"Should any such policy be considered," he said, "these steam coal producers would be as much entitled to it as the domestic coal producers, and the province could not assume any such responsibility as that would involve."

"What this means, instead, is that it is a temporary expedient to hold the Ontario market provisionally, while as a permanent solution of the development of the industry we are urging the Dominion government to make every effort to expedite the inquiry by the railway commission already authorized."

Everything has drawbacks. In prosperity there are more taxes to dodge.

The queerest thing about wrecks is that both cars invariably get run into.

One objection to movie kisses is that they look too much like vulcanizing.

About the only thing reformers never denounce is the collection plate.

BUY AT HOME SPEND YOUR MONEY IN MACLEOD

Purchases representing thousands of dollars are lost to us, to our trade, to our clerks and employees, to our laborers and artisans, to all the people of Macleod who exist on the products of their work. This money, if spent at home, would help to recreate Macleod financially, give a wider field of activities in business, would be helpful to every resident of this town.

If we purchased regularly from local merchants, this money would circulate in Macleod in a welcome manner. Our merchants merit our patronage; it is to our interest, and the duty of all of us to encourage the local merchant. He is one of us, he lives among us, he has the right to be encouraged by us, he is anxious to have our custom, and to give us satisfaction. We should under all circumstances give him preference, price for price, quality for quality. And nearly always the price that our local merchant asks is, if we compare the quality, just as cheap as that of the outside merchant.

Never purchase merchandise by catalogues from foreign houses before assuring yourself that you cannot procure the same articles, of the same quality (and frequently of better quality) at the same price from your local merchant.

Research Work in T. B.
Alberta livestock breeders will be interested in the announcement made at the annual dinner of the livestock breeders and exhibitors of Canada in Toronto last week, and appearing in western dispatches that a famous French doctor, an associate of the Frenchman who has claimed the discovery of a vaccine for the prevention of tuberculosis in cattle, was coming to Canada to associate himself with research work and experiments now being carried on here with this vaccine. The announcement was made by Dr. H. J. Cody, chairman of the board of governors of the university of Toronto where experiments with this vaccine are now being made. Dr. Cody states that the investigator from France will be associated with Dr. Fitzgerald in the Connaught anti-toxin laboratories at Toronto. It is understood that McGill University is bringing another expert from France in the same connection.

Experiments with the famous Calmette vaccine, which has been proceeding in Alberta for some months under the direction of the provincial department of agriculture and the university of Alberta, in the hope that something might be accomplished in the way of providing a preventative of tuberculosis in cattle, thus obviating the great economic waste in the destruction of valuable livestock under the present system of slaughter of cattle reacting to the T. B. test.

SASKATCHEWAN PREMIER TO BE RAIL MINISTER
Ottawa, Feb. 22.—Charles Dunning, premier of Saskatchewan, is entering the King cabinet as minister of railways and canals.

Mr. Dunning succeeds Hon. George P. Graham, who has resigned his portfolio.

Mr. Graham will continue, however, in the government as minister without portfolio. Official announcement to this effect was made late Saturday afternoon by Premier King. The premier further declared that F. N. Darke, Liberal, Regina, had resigned to make way for Mr. Dunning. Nomination day has been fixed for March 16, stated Premier King, with March 23 as the date of the by-election in Regina.

Mr. Graham refused to comment on his resignation last night. The resignation and the appointment of Mr. Dunning marked the first of several cabinet changes forecast since the general election in October.

Mr. Dunning is expected in the capital within a few days to be sworn into the privy council.

Will Resign Thursday
Regina, Feb. 22.—While Hon. Charles Dunning has accepted the portfolio of railways and canals in the Dominion cabinet, he remains premier of Saskatchewan. He will not vacate this office until after next Thursday. On that day, according to practice, members of the Liberal party in the Saskatchewan legislature and defeated Liberal candidates of other constituencies will assemble in Regina to select a new premier. They will meet in the afternoon to agree on their choice and will present their determination to a provincial convention to be held the same evening.

Hon. C. M. Hamilton, minister of agriculture and municipal affairs, or Hon. J. G. Gardiner, minister of highways and labor, is expected to be the choice of the party for the position.

A Saturday Report
Regina, Feb. 20.—According to rumors prevalent here today, Premier Charles Dunning will seek election to the federal house on March 23, with nomination day on March 16. In political circles it is declared the official dates have been received direct from Ottawa.

F. N. Darke, who has resigned his seat to make way for Mr. Dunning was elected in the last general election to represent the constituency of Regina. It was a three-cornered fight, Mr. Darke being opposed by F. W. Turnbull, Conservative, and M. J. Coldwell, Progressive. The vote was: Darke, 7,478; Turnbull, 5,399; Coldwell, 2,284.

Previous to the Prince Albert by-election, there were rumors that Mr. Darke would resign his seat, but it was then stated that Hon. Vincent Massey would be a candidate. Since the general election rumors that Mr. Dunning would be taken into the federal cabinet also have been prevalent here.

200,000 TONS COAL ALBERTA TO ONTARIO

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—A telegram was read in the house of commons this afternoon which had been sent by Premier King to the Hon. G. H. Ferguson, premier of Ontario, stating that in the event of the Canadian National Railways discontinuing the $7 rate on Alberta coal, the federal government would be pleased to contribute one-third of the additional costs until the Board of Railway Commissioners made its report on the cost of coal movement, and provided that Ontario and Alberta would contribute similar amounts. The telegram was read by Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior.

The question was raised by E. J. Garland, Progressive, Bow, who had read a telegram which had addressed to Premier J. E. Brownlee, of Alberta. The wire stated that the coal rate inquiry would not likely reach its finding in time for action by this session of parliament. Mr. Garland recommended that Alberta, Ontario and the Dominion guarantee any difference between the $7 rate and the rate established as a result of any railway commission finding. He estimated the total movement, prior to the commission's finding at 200,000 tons.

Send 200,000 Tons
Toronto, Feb. 22.—The Toronto Star today publishes the following special dispatch from Ottawa:

"Two hundred thousand tons of Alberta coal are to bring relief to Ontario consumers and hold for Canadian coal the market against American competition."

"This afternoon the government will agree to the proposal broached by Alberta representatives here in Ottawa to Premier Ferguson and the Alberta and federal governments. The Alberta mines will be called upon to ship two hundred thousand tons to Ontario and any excess costs over the $7 rate will be divided equally between the three governments."

"The consent of the Canadian National Railways has not yet been obtained but it is pointed out that Sir Henry Thornton can not well refuse because he will be guaranteed any cost in excess of $7 a ton."

Two Cars Arrive
Toronto, Feb. 22.—The arrival of sixty-five tons of coal, the first two cars of a thousand-ton shipment of Alberta coal to the authorities of this city was reported today and tomorrow orders will be taken at the city hall for the coal. The price will be $13.50 per ton. Property Commissioner Chisholm states.

ALBERTA WANTS INFORMATION ABOUT COAL-BONUSING SCHEME

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—In a telegram to Premier Ferguson of Ontario today, Premier King stated that in the event of the Canadian National Railways discontinuing the $7 rate on Alberta coal, the federal government would be pleased to contribute one-third of the additional cost, provided that Ontario and Alberta would contribute equal amounts.

The message was read in the house today by Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior.

Edmonton, Feb. 22.—The Alberta government is not sure that it wants to join in a blanket agreement with the province of Ontario and the Dominion to each pay a third of the cost of transporting Alberta coal to Ontario in excess of a $7 rate. Premier J. E. Brownlee informed the Herald today:

Premier Ferguson of Ontario voiced the plan which Mr. Brownlee said had been under consideration for two days. "We," said the Alberta premier, "are reluctant to enter into what appears to be a request for some kind of a blanket guarantee and have wired for more information. As soon as we get it we will announce our decision to the house."

The tone of the interview appeared distinctly unfavorable, however to the proposed triple coal bonusing arrangement.

Natural Resources

Mr. Brownlee also said that he had a wire from O. M. Biggar, the Dominion counsel who assisted in drafting the agreement for the transfer of the natural resources. Mr. Biggar telegraphed he will arrive Tuesday night in Edmonton to discuss a draft of a uniform recommendation for the transfer of the resources. It is necessary to have the same text pass the provincial and federal houses as it must go to the Imperial parliament for confirmation.

Budget By March 15

The premier also said that he expects the budget to be brought down in the legislature "not later than March 15," indicating the continued desire of the government to press the session to a conclusion at the earliest possible moment. He also said he hoped to wind up the debate on the speech from the throne by Tuesday night of this week.

IS GOVERNMENT PLANNING TAKE OVER E.B.C. AND RUN NORTH LINE?

Edmonton, Feb. 24.—Announcing the intention of the government to build a twenty-five mile extension of the Edmonton, Damsagan and B. C. Railway this year, Hon. Vornoi Smith, minister of railways, gave clear indication in the legislature Tuesday of the intention of the government to acquire and retain ownership of this northern railway. It is the final outcome, evidently, of the strife between the minister of railways and the former premier, Hon. Herbert Greenfield, with the railway minister holding the final card.

Hon. Mr. Smith announced that the new branch line would run from some point between Busby and Westlock on the E. D. and B. C. toward the Athabasca River at Fort Assiniboine, and that a portion of the rails for the extension had already been purchased.

Clash Over Resources

While referring to the natural resources, Mr. Smith clashed with C. R. Mitchell, leader of the opposition. Hon. Mr. Smith gave great credit to former Premier Greenfield for his part in conducting the negotiations at Ottawa for the return of the resources. It was due to Mr. Greenfield largely, he said, with the aid of Premier Brownlee, that the negotiations had been successful. "I thought Premier McKenzie King also had something to do with it," put in Jos. Dechene, Liberal, Beaver River.

"He was long enough about it," called a Farmer member across the house.

"His offer was extended two years ago, and refused once, then accepted and we got no better deal," retorted Mr. Mitchell.

"True, very true," agreed Mr. Smith "but we thought we should have got a better deal."

FARMERS WARNED TO TEST GERMINATION OF THEIR SEED

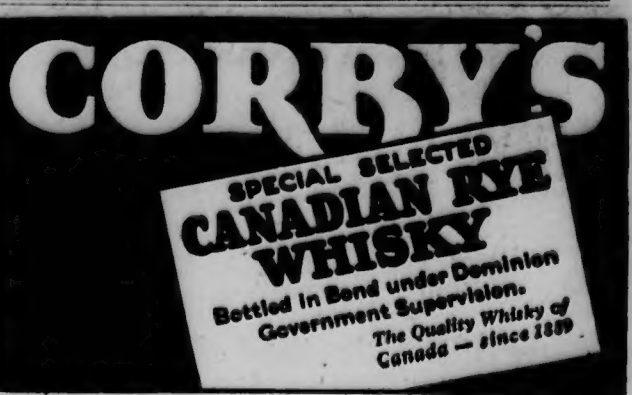

It has come to the attention of the Alberta Department of Agriculture that a large percentage of grain in the Province is displaying poor germination qualities. It is most important that, before seeding commences, the farmers should have their seed thoroughly tested for germination. This can be done for a nominal fee by sending samples to the Dominion seed branch office at Calgary. It is believed that there is plenty of good quality of seed in the province to fill all demands, but it is important that farmers make certain of the quality of their seed before seeding. Those who have not made arrangements for seed or who have not seed available may secure high quality seed through the provincial marketing plant at Edmonton.

ALBERTA PRESSES FOR MILE RATE ON GRAIN, FLOUR TO FORT WILLIAM

Ottawa, Feb. 23.—(Canadian Press)—The Board of Railway Commissioners divided equally this afternoon on the question whether Alberta and Saskatchewan had established a prima facie case that existing eastbound grain rates from the prairies to Fort William are discriminatory. The chief commissioner, Deputy Chief Commissioner Vien and Commissioner Oliver answered in the affirmative and placed the onus of proof on the railway.

Assistant Chief Commissioner McLean and Commissioners Boyce and Lawrence held in the negative and ruled that the question of discrimination should go over to the general rates case.

CANADIAN CHEESE ABROAD

Ex-Premier of Britain, Mr. H. H. Asquith, now Earl of Oxford, advises his countrymen to eat more butter and cheese. To this counsel most medical men firmly agree. And the advice might well be heeded by the men and women of Canada. Meantime the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa is doing its best not only to encourage the export trade but also to develop uniformity in quality, especially in texture and flavour. These efforts regarding the trade, with which they are intimately related, without publicity would be largely unavailing. To further this arrangement were made with one of the best known firms of caterers in London, England, a firm controlling four hundred restaurants and shops, including supply of the British Empire Exhibition, to advertise only Canadian "Cheddar Cheese" on their bills of fare. Under this agreement, says the Dominion Minister of Agriculture in his annual report, his Department undertook to select and purchase the cheese in Canada and to supply the weekly requirements at the highest price quoted for New Zealand cheese on the London Provision Exchange. The firm subsequently expressed themselves highly pleased with the quality of cheese received, at the same time stating that there had been a noticeable increase in the demand. No fewer than 4,272 boxes weighing 360,396 pounds were supplied to the firm during the first year the agreement was in force, netting a substantial credit balance to the Department. It is safe to say that it is this year's hundreds of thousands of people, to whom under ordinary circumstances Canadian cheese would probably have been unknown have made its acquaintance.

GUILD JOINS LADIES' AID OF MACLEOD CHURCH

A meeting of the ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Macleod, was held in the church annex on Thursday, Feb. 18. Mrs. J. H. Struthers, the chairman, in a short address set forth the purpose for which the meeting was called, the main object being to reorganize and enlarge the Ladies' Aid. A number of new members were welcomed, and also the Young Ladies' Guild, which has decided to unite with the Ladies' Aid.

The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Marshall Hill. First Vice-president—Mrs. Tabor. Second Vice-president—Mrs. John Ringland. Third Vice-president—Mrs. R. H. Richardson. Secretary—Mrs. W. A. Gordon. Treasurer—Mrs. Sandy Dunn. The newly-elected president then took charge of the meeting and appointed committees to be in charge of the several departments of work. Committees—Buying—Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. J. D. Matheson. Fancy Work—Mrs. F. Morris, Mrs. B. Ehmier, Plain Sewing—Mrs. Ringland, Mrs. Tripp, Mrs. A. L. McKenzie, Miss E. Ferguson, Aprons—Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Tabor. Plans for the work of the year were outlined, and the first Tea and Sale was arranged to be held in the Town Hall early in March. Not for many years has the Aid had such an auspicious commencement for the year. Votes of thanks were tendered the retiring officers. The spirit of co-operation among the congregation is very encouraging. Rev. A. W. R. Whiteman was able to attend service on Sunday after his recent serious illness.
